Policy Engagement and Applied Research

LUMS–FBR Research Partnership — LUMS Lead (2026–Present)
Building a research–policy partnership between LUMS and Pakistan's Federal Board of Revenue to evaluate the digitization pillar of FBR's Transformation Plan — production monitoring, digital invoicing, POS integration, algorithmic audit selection, and officer incentive reforms — using anonymized administrative data; supported by the Gates Foundation through Karandaaz, with researchers at the University of Manchester, LSE, Columbia, MIT, the University of Washington, and ICTD (IDS Sussex).
Asian Development Bank (ADB) — Gender and Public Finance Specialist (2026–Present)
Leading gender integration in the design of a major ADB-financed tax administration digitalization program, including its Gender Assessment and Action Plan and inclusive digital service design; also authoring a commissioned paper on gender and taxation for ADB's Country Gender Assessment, informing the Country Partnership Strategy.
World Bank Group — Consultant, Poverty & Equity Global Practice (2024–2025)
Conducted fiscal incidence and distributional analysis for Sri Lanka's Public Finance Review and Country Climate and Development Report (CCDR).
GIZ (Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit) — International Consultant (2024–2025)
Advised on the modernization of subnational property taxation, including the transition to market-based valuation systems and institutional coordination for local revenue mobilization.
Adam Smith International (FCDO–SEED Programme) — Advisor (2023–2024)

Designed and implemented a randomized field experiment to evaluate behavioral and enforcement-based interventions for improving tax compliance in the hospitality sector.

Government and Institutional Research Partners: Federal Board of Revenue (FBR); Punjab Revenue Authority; Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Revenue Authority; Excise, Taxation and Narcotics Control Department, Punjab; The Urban Unit, Government of Punjab; Agriculture Department, Government of Punjab; Bank of Punjab.
